HARDER TO STAY THAN TO RUN

By Terry Cox, Aug 14, 1993 CGap Music (ASCAP)

Bm D Bm Once your words are out and the sound fades away Bm You wonder if love lingers on Bm D Bm Bad or worse, good or great, will she go or will she stay? D A You know it's harder to stay than to run If you tell her your plans, will she follow your lead? And agree what your life could become? Will she share with you her dreams, her hopes and wants and needs? She knows it's harder to stay than to run Bm Will she give you love, will she hold you tight? F#m Will she kiss your cheek and touch your face? D "I love you, will you stay forever and a day?" Bm You know, it's harder to stay than to run

She has empty hours, does she have time for you? Will she say "I do" and keep it fun? The time is now, it's up to you, if you love or if you lose But, it's harder to say than to run

Will she give you love, will she hold you tight? Will she kiss your cheek and touch your face? I love you, will you stay forever and a day? You know, it's harder to stay than to run

I love you, will you stay forever and a day? You know, it's harder to stay than to run
