

LIFE IS JUST A GAME

By Terry Cox, Sep 10, 1988
CGap Music (ASCAP)

D

Well it ain't much of a life if the TV and your wife

A

Are the only things that keep you sane

D

If no thrill can be found and you don't know up from down

G A D

You've forgotten that life is just a game

G D

Just a game, just a game

A

If you search all the world then you'll find

D F C G D

Life is just a one-way track, you ain't ever comin' back

G A D

Hey, hey, hey, hey, life is just a game

I got a teddy bear for free at a yard sale down the street
Two kids were grown and almost tame
They were sellin' off their youth and puttin' on their suits
They'd forgotten that life is just a game

Now a day or two a month, I give away some junk
Games, toys and little candy canes
And the boys and girls at work, they think I've got a quirk
But they're finding that life is just a game

Chorus

Hey, hey, hey, hey, life is just a game

Play key D
